ACCEPTANCE.

Weaver and Field Formally Accept the People's Party Nominations.

Rousing Bugle Blast from the Front of the Fight in Dixie.

Ringing Address to the Intelligent and Independent Thinking Voters of the United States.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 16.—Address of General James B. Weaver and General J.G. Field, issued to the people of the United States:

Having been nominated respectively for the office of president and vice president of the United States by the national convention of the people's party, which assembled at Omaha, Neb., July 4, 1892, we take this method of formally notifying the public of our acceptance of the nomination tendered and of our high appreciation of the honor conferred upon us by the action of the convention. We are heartily in accord with the platform and principles adopted by said convention and if elected will endeavor to the utmost of our ability to faithfully carry out said demands in letter and in spirit.

IN FIFTEEN STATES.

We have been requested by the national committee to visit the various states of the union so far as it should be within our power and to address the people upon the political situation and the issues presented in the platform. We are now in the discharge of that duty, having already, one or both of us, visited fifteen states in the north-west and south and, if health and strength are spared, we intend to continue the work until the campaign is closed. We have been received by the great body of people with marked cordiality. The enthusiasm manifested everywhere is simply without a parallel and extends to every part of the union thus far visited.

SOME PLAIN LANGUAGE.

By contact with the people, we have become acquainted with their wants, their sufferings, and have been brought face to face with the manifold perils which so seriously threaten our civilization and the overthrow of popular government. We wish to express our judgment freely and without reserve in order that we may stand acquitted before our fellow men and our own consciences touching the whole matter. The people are in poverty, their substance is being devoured by heartless monopolies, trusts, pools and money sharks. Labor is largely unemployed, and where work is obtainable the wages paid are for the most part unremunerative and the products of labor not paying the cost of production. This is a matter of serious concern to the whole people.

RECENT OLD PARTY LEADERS.

The leaders of the heretofore dominant parties are everywhere controlled by the great monopoly and money centers and manifest utter disregard for the wants and wishes of the plain people. These parties are hostile camps arrayed on sectional lines and represent the bitterness and cruelties of the past every four years, discussing the issues of the late war, which should long since have been allowed to pass from the political discussion of the day. Noiwithstanding the bitterness existing between the old parties, they vie with each other in their subserviency to to capitalistic and corporate greed. They are incapable of dealing sincerely with the vast problems envolved by the growth of the past quarter of the century upon the great economic questions of the age.

THEIR POLITICAL SHAM BATTLE.

They are practically in purpose differing just enough to enable them to carry on a sham battle, while the work of robbery and spoliation proceeds unabated. In the meantime farmers and planters north and south and the wage earners everywhere are proscribed maltreated, denied the right to organize in defense of themselves and families, brought into competition with convict labor and in many instances shot down by hired mercenaries, acting under the orders of arrogant corporations, which have unblushingly usurped the functions of government and presume to act in its stead.

SUBSIDIZED CORPORATION PRESS.

The corporations dominate the daily press and control the lines of daily communication with the people.

We hold that the right of a free ballot and a fair count are rights preservative of all rights and upon their inviolability rest the perpetuity of free institutions and representative government.

IN THE SOUTH.

We are pained to discover in the public mind of the southern states through which we have passed a widespread loss of confidence on the part of the people in the integrity of the judges of elections in receiving the ballots of the people and counting them for the candidates of their choice. We think that this evil to the extent that it exists, must be corrected by the intelligence and integrity of the people of the country, otherwise scenes of violence and perhaps bloodshed may follow these efforts of parties in charge of the ballot boxes to defraud the will of the voter. They will lead to serious collision, if not bloodshed.

SOUTHERN WHITE MEN POPULISTS.

After consultation with the people, we believe it to be true beyond reasonable question that the majority of the white voters are with the people's party in every southern state thus far visited, and our information leads us to believe the same the same thing is true in the other states also. The white people are leaving the old parties and are casting in their lot with us, and our numbers are constantly increasing.

We are informed by a large number of in telligent and reputable people that in the recent state electionin Alabama, Captain Kolb was chosen governor by over 40,000 majority and yet his opponent was counted inby over 10,000. County tickets throughout the state were counted out and others counted in by the same unblushing methods.

WHOLESALE ARKANSAS FRAUDS.

We are further informed that in the state election which occurred in Arkansas on the 5th inst. that at least 50,000 of the qualifiied voters of said state were deprived of their right of suffrage and the returns are utterly inaccurate, that at said election, the people's party, though polling a very large vote in the state, were denied representation in the appointment of judges and commissioners by whom the said election was conducted. In consequence of these methods, the will of the legally authorized voters of the state has been defeated.

NO HONEST COUNT.

The only thing that our friends in that state have to guide them is the few counties where they were able to force an honest count. In every one of the counties our vote ran to expectations. In Washington, White, Independence, Nevada, Clarke, Crawford, Sebastian, Scott, populous white counties, the people's party polled an immense vote, their ticket leading the republican largely and was about equal with the democratic. We believe that a fair count would have shown similar conditions throughout the state. These frauds and irregularities in elections in the two states referred to, though local, are yet matters worthy of the consideration of the people of the whole United States.

STAND UP FOR THE SOUTH.

This deplorable condition of affairs can't be remedied from without. The solution must come from the people within the states supported by a bolting public sentiment everywhere and we blieve it to be the duty of all the people without regard to section, to stand by the voters in the south, who have risen up and demand good governmeent and honest elections. After an experiment of many years it is apparent that neither the republican party nor the democratic party can or will accomplish the much desired end, to wit:

The restoration of the ballot to a fair and honest basis in the states of the union.

OLD PARTIES CORRUPT.

The people's party alone can secure the desired end. It is free from all sectional bitterness. If the people of the whole country, who desire honest elections and the repeal of class laws, will rally to the support of this great and industrial movement and place the party in power, under whose banner the white people of the south are now marshalling themselves, this vexed question will be settled forever, and it is certain that the people of the south will not join the ranks of the republican party. It is equally certain that the republicans will not unite with the democratic party.

THE ONLY REMEDY.

The people's party affords the only solution of these important matters; they who desire the revival of business; all who wish for the return of prosperity to our country; all who desire to relieve the depressed industries and wage workers of our common country: all who desire an adequate increase of of currency and free coinage of silver; all who desire the abolition of banks of issue and the constitutional control of the great instruments of commerce by the government of the United States: all who desire that the laws of taxation shall be equitably adjusted to the property of the country; all who desire that the public domain shall be sacredly held in trust for the people; all who desire that the highways between the states shall be rendered subservient to the popular good: and, finally all who desire the restoration in all sections, of fraternity among the people and the obliteration of sectional animosities, should at once regard it as their conscientious duty to align themselves under the banner of this great industrial fraternal movement.

APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE.

It seems to us to be quite impossible that the liberty and justice of loving people of this country should longer cast their ballots for the corporations and money changers. It would seem impossible that they should refuse to make common cause with the fair minded majority of the white people of the south and who have risen up to demand justice and good government in their respective states and it further seems impossible that the producers and laboring population of the United States shall deliberately go to the polls in November and cast their votes in harmony with the corporations and money power, who have systematically and cruelly robbed them for so many years; vote in harmony with their despoilers, who make war against even their right to organize for the protection of themselves and families.

THE THREATENING DANGER.

With the aggressions of capital on the one hand, and the overthrow by fraud of free elections on the other, how is it possible for our civilization to last? The new party has its face turned to the glorious future. It is its sublime mission to usher in an era of fraternity and justice among men In the presence of such an opportunity to emancipate our country from misrule of every kind, let party lines be forgotten and let the generous flames of a common party patriotism nerve every heart and move every soul.

JAMES G. FIELD.

FROM EX-SECRETARY OF STATE, MOORE.

An Appeal for Nugent.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept 15.—[To the News.]—By your kind permission I avail myself of your columns for the purpose of an appeal to the unshackeled voters of Texas.

The republicans have indorsed the candidacy of Judge Clark. An overwhelming majority of the naturalized citizenship is rallying beneath his banners. The great bulk of the city democracy, gather with his clans and a large proportion of the true blues of the country, together with a probable majority of the small towns and villages, fight in his ranks. His election is assured, unless a combination can be made between the followers of Gov. Hogg and the people's party.

For conscientious reasons and consistency's sake the people's party cannot go to Gov. Hogg. But the convention at Houston, whose nominee J. S. Hogg is, adopted from the people's platform many of its leading and distinctive features. They invite the people's co-operation, but they reply by a broader invitation and a wider hospitality.

Ought not the Hogg democracy, if sincere in their declaration of principles, vote with the people's party in order to secure the defeat of their common enemy? What good is a declaration of principles unless they find expression in the laws of the land? But with divided forces, how can the people expect to succeed against the mighty capalistic combinations now existing and confronting them? Certainly the platform of principles adopted by the Hogg convention at Houston and the people's party at Dallas are more important, rise above the political destinies, desires and ambitions of any man.

Judge Nugent, it is well known, favors a strong popular commission, and however sincere Gov. Hogg may be conceded to have been, to say the least, he has been unfortunate both in his limitation with railroads and in the commission of his literal creation. I sav the commission of his literal creation for the reason that he boasts having dotted all the i's and crossed all the t's of the commission, which like poor Bicheron, the French dog, only went ihto the woods on time and got destroyed by the wolves. The superior legal learning and profounder reach of Judge Nugent will enable him to steer clear of the rocks which gored Hogg's law to death, while at the same time affording the people of Texas the full measure of relief hoped for through commission regulation.

Now is the time for the people to win. The old, scheming, ring politicians are divided. The iron is hot; let the mighty arm of the people wield the sledge hammer of truth and strike from the chaos of conflicting policies the prosperity of Texas. The prayers of the women forced to compete with impoverished brothers, fathers and sons or driven to co-operate with them in the hard toil of the cotton patch, degraded to the level of mules, goes with you. The laborers denied the opportunities of schools and the privileges of education demand it of you.

I repeat again that there never was such a chance for the people. Confusion harasses the flank of the enemy.

A decided percentage of sincere democrats, wedded to convictions and careless of leaders foreseeing that the success of either faction of the democracy will simply mean a continued factional fight and wisely think that the present defeat of both wings of the party will rebound to its final good and for these reasons they will refrain from voting at all in the approaching election. So, all factors considered, now is the golden opportunity of the people to overthrow ring rule and scatter the minions of plutocracy.

Will the people rally around the standard of popular resistance to financial tyranny, or for the sake of a fetish divide and suffer?

There are good men indeed who feel that something is due Gov Hogg out of consideration to his brave but weak and unavailing efforts against corporation greed. But if so, he is young and healthy and there is yet time. He might with propriety if he will consent to stand for real measures of financial relief be raised to one or the other of two seats in the United States' senate forfeited by Mills through time serving and by Coke through his war upon the freedom of thought and the sacred right of American suffrage.

The people's party will succeed and inaugurate a reign of prosperity, not for the classes merely, but for the masses, if the toilers of the field will only co-operate with their brethren of the hoe and unite, voters of Texas, for good government and homely honesty. In union is strength. It is not sufficient for people who would be free financially or otherwise, to content themselves with idle dreams; it cannot be attained by divided efforts. If it comes it will come as the fruitage of co-operation by all the people having a common interest. The people must rise to the occasion and hurl against Hogg's politicians and Clarks speculators a solid phalanx of honest yeomanry. Think not by this that I seek to array the country against the town. I am of the town but I appeal alike to the farmer at his plow, the smith at his anvil the joiner at his bench, the merchant at his counter, the lawyer at his desk, the preacher in his pulpit. I appeal to all who love wife and child, fireside and country, liberty and right to all who hold with Thomas Jefferson that men are and of a right ought to be free and equal.

Unite, unite unite. Texas speaks to us, her destinies inspire us and her hopes arouse. Gather from field and shop, from forest and plain, and rallying beneath the proud banner of popular rights assume an oath more solemn than that of Hannibal, "not to destroy Rome, but to save Carthage."

J. M. MOORE.

Walden's Texas Business College, Austin and Fort Worth.

These are the great practical training schools of the south. Schools that all Texas look upon with pride. The course of study is in touch with the living demands of the age. They prepare young men and women for the active duties of life, giving them training in those things that make them independent and self-sustaining.

The curiculum, embraces a thorough and practical course in business training, Shorthand and Typewriting, Telegraphy and English. The methods are thorough, equipments complete, and with an investment of only $80.00 for board, tuition and stationery, a young gentleman or lady can secure an education that will be of lifetime benefit.

It is estimated that over 700 pupils will attend these popular schools this year. Look to your interest, and write for their beautifully illustrated catalogue.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 22, 1892.

ON with the three cornered fight.

"A FELLOW who looks like old Brains" has got his foot in it.

SENATOR Maxey and Hon. J. W. Throckorton have written letters decalring for Clark.

THE United States is threatened with asiatic cholera. Some think it worse than hogg cholera.

JUDGE Nugent's character has not yet been attacked. Judge, we are getting a little suspicious.

To Judge Nugent: If you will come to McKinney and make a speech Collin county will give you a royal welcome, regardless of political offiliations.

THE State election law requires that all tickets must be of plain white paper without marks of any kind and all names on said ticket must be written or printed in black. Remember this.

LAST Monday's Dallas News contained a long letter from Judge Nugent in which he pays his repects to Hon. J. W. Bailey. Nugent has proved too much for the young congressman, who boasts of his knowledge of Calhoun.

THERE will be no let up with the new party. Its members have enlisted for the war. Even a defeat next November will not discourage them. The peoples party is young and its growth is phenomenal. By the year 1896 it will be a giant "and don't you forget it."

WE can not see the wisdom in the Forth Worth convention recommending a straight-out Democrat. Nugent is a good man who is knocking at the door of democracy and who is capable of showing high appreciations for votes from any class of our citizens-and he will get them too. See!

The Truth.

You can get the San Antonia Truth and the Democrat for $250 per year. The Truth is edited by R. W. Coleman and is undoubtly the best reform paper in the Great Southwest. Call at the Democrat office and subscribe.

JUDGE Burnett of Palestine, received the nomination of the peoples party last Monday for district judge. He was a delegate to the late republican convention and was an enthuseastic Nugent man. Since said convention, which recomended a democrat, Judge Burnett has cast his lot with the peoples party.

The Gubernatorial Race.

The last State convention bas been held. At Fort Worth last week the republican convention "recommended" the republicans of Texas to vote for George Clark "in the interest of Texas." It is hard at this stage of the game to give a deffinite idea regarding the effect of the "recommendation," yet we can all have the privilege of guessing. There can be no doubt, while Clark will not get all the republican vote, that the action of the republican convention will stimulate our Clark friends to more energetic action and consequently they will pull greatly from Hogg's ranks. This will strengthen Nugent for the reason Clark will command a great democratic following in the cities where Nugent could not hope for much aid. It is a well known fact that it takes a great amount of money to secure a large portion of the city vote and Nugent, not having this money, can rest easy that said vote will be divided between Clark and Hogg, while he will have clear sailing in the great rural districts. Again, no longer can the opponents of Nugent raise the false cry that the peoples party is an adjunct of the republican party.

The principles of the peoples party is plainly laid down. Unlike the Hogg platform, it does not attempt to grasp the "visionary schemes" of other parties in order to catch votes. With the 100,000 democratic votes already placed to the credit of Clark and with a few thousand from other sources the race is now between Clark and Nugent with the chances largely in favor of the latter. Chairman Bentley informs us that already there are enlisted in the peoples party clubs in Texas 112,000 voters. This will be augmented to at least 160,000 by accessions from other parties by election day. This gives rise to the following reasonable table:

Nugent,	160,000.
Clark,	130,000.
Hogg,	110,000.

Nugent's plurality 30,000.

We understand that Hogg leaders in their desperation are begging the Nugent men to forsake their chief and vote for Hogg. This advice will fall flat on the ears of the men whom Hogg in his palmy days has slapped so often in the face and declared them "too big for their breeches." No sir, the peoples party is in the race to win. Judge Nugent, their standard bearer, is head and shoulders above any candidate in the field. He is a brainey and conservative gentleman, with a great heart beating in sympathy for his countrymen. "The war is over" with him and while the Fort Worth convention "recommended" in favor of Clark many republican turn instinctively to Nugent, believing it to be to the best interest of the State to vote for a man who is not an Autocrat, but a pure high minded gentleman.

HOGG is counting on getting a large share of the colored vote in East Texas. Wonder if the negroes will be foolish enough to join the Tyler gang?

Echoes From Rockport.

ROCKPORT, Tex., Sept. 14, '92.

Editor Democrat.

Good rains have set everything in order on land and the waters are yielding bountiful supplies of oysters, fish, fowl and turtle.

The value of these coast lands are doubly confirmed by the crops that have stood the severe drouth.

Sea Island cotton is well adapted here and large yield is assured.

Our vine growers have proven this the equal of California or any other land for fine wine.

Havana tobacco has produced an extra large yield.

The manufacturers of flax, ramie and other fiber plants are looking this way, attracted by the products of South-west Texas.

A fine public school building is complete and furnished with best appliances.

Streets are graded and shelled.

A large shipping and forwarding house with side-track is being built.

Deep water work goes on with eleven feet on the bar.

Everybody is cheerful and hopeful and waiting for the nightmare of politics to pass away.

Oh, how the political gods are falling and the party idols are shattered.

Mills dodging and whining, Coke raving like a mad man, and other congressmen crying for the spoils of office to fall upon them and hide them from populist speakers.

All the political dead timber seems to fall one way and the people have hopes of warm fires this winter.

The Lord helps those who help themselves and surely he is with the people this time.

Senator Bloodybones, falsely called "Old Brains" says every man who fails to vote for Hogg is a traitor and should not live.

This includes the little giant with his retinue.

How beautiful for brethren to dwell together in unity and love.

Bless their pure spirits and precious innocence! How these blessed patriots love one another and how they honor the G. O. P. "Whom the gods would destroy" and; "when thieves fall out"; all these beautiful and wise sayings apply with such political force just now!

"The wicked fleeth when no man pursueth." "The guilty concience needs no accuser." "The way of the transgressor is hard." "The wicked shall be consumed." Surely these prophetic sayings have a beautiful fullfillment among the grand old parties.

A great volume of thanksgiving and praise ascends to Him who sends confusion to this babel of sin and corruption. So long.

Resolutions.

MIDWAY ALLIANCE 2163.

Sept. 16 1892.

Whereas, we are in possession of the fact that there is a new cotton yard operated at Farmersville, Texas, in opposition to and for the purpose of breaking down the Farmers-Alliance yard; which if successful, would be detrimental to the interest of the farmers. The business of the alliance yard has been attended with promptness and justice to both seller and buyer and the farmers allowed to elect the weigher a privilege denied them by said new yard.

Therefore, be it resolved that the members of this alliance will not patronize said new yard but will use our influence for the alliance yard.

Resolved, that if any merchant or grocerer use his or their influence for such new yard, that we will not patronize such individual or firm to which he is a member.

THE TEXAS ELECTION LAW.

Every Citizen Should Read.

We respectfully present the following most important election clause from the Statutes of the State of Texas:

"(R. S. ART. 1667.) PRESIDING OFFICERS TO BE APPOINTED.

At the first regular or called session of the commissioners court in each county, in each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, said court shall select and appoint some suitable and competent person in each election precinct to serve as presiding officer of elections in said precinct and said appointment shall be noted upon the minutes of the court; provided, that the commissioners court of any county may have the power, when they deem advisable, to appoint two presiding officers for each election precinct, one of whom shall be the presiding officer at the ballot box used for the deposit of ballots cast for electors for the president and vice president of the United States, and members of congress of the United States, and the other presiding officer at the ballot box used for the deposit of ballots cast for state, district and county officers, (18. Leg. p. 29.)

(ART. 1668 R. S.) QUALIFICATIONS OF PRESIDING OFFICER.

One person shall be appointed presiding officer who is not a qualified voter of the precinct for which he is so appointed.

(ART. 1669 R. S.) TERM OF APPOINTMENT.

A presiding officer appointed by the commissioner's court shall continue to act as such for two years and until his successor is appointed.

(ART. 1671 R. S.) VOTERS MAY APPOINT PRESIDING OFFICER, WHEN.

In case the presiding officer appointed, should fail to attend on the day of election, or refuse or fail to act. or in case no presiding officer has been appointed, it shall be lawful for the voters present at the precinct voting place on that day, to appoint from among the qualified voters of such precinct a presiding officer to act as such at that election; and the person so appointed shall be authorized to act as presiding officer as fully as if he had been appointed by the commissioners court. (Act. Aug. 23rd 1876, 15th Leg. p. 306)

(ART. 1673 R. S.) JUDGES AND CLERKS APPOINTED, ETC.

The presiding officer of each election precinct shall, on or before the day of election, select from among the qualified voters of the precinct, two judges and two clerks, such election to be made from the different political parties, if demanded, as far as practicable, and there be present a sufficient number of the party making such demand who are willing and competent to serve in such position. That each presiding judge, before balloting begins, shall designate two of said judges to be counting judges, and such presiding judge and said remaining judge shall be the receiving judges, of election, and said presiding judge shall designate two of said clerks to be receiving clerks and two of said clerks to be canvassing clerks of said election. The said receiving clerks shall keep the poll lists and the said canvassing clerks shall keep the tally lists now provided for by law. (Act. Mar. 14; July 4th, 1887, 20 Leg. p. 21.)

2nd. MODE OF RECEIVING AND COUNTING VOTES.

There shall be provided by the presiding judge two ballot boxes, one of which shall be numbered No. 1 and the other No. 2. Before the balloting begins, said judge shall open and examine said boxes, and remove everything therefrom.

MODE OF RECEIVING BALLOTS.

One of said receiving judges shall receive the ballots of each voter, and after pronouncing the name of such voter in an audible voice shall pass the ballot to the other receiving judge, who shall number the same and deposit it in said ballot box No. 1, which shall be kept securely closed while the balloting continues, for one hour from time of opening the polls.

COUNTING OF BALLOTS.

At the expiration of said hour the receiving judges shall deliver said ballot box No. 1, to the counting judges, who shall immediately deliver over to said receiving judges, ballot box No. 2 shall be opened and examined in the presence of all the judges, and when everything is removed therefrom, shall be securely closed, and until the ballots in box No. 1 have been counted said receiving judges shall receive and deposit ballots therein in the same manner as during the first hour ballots were received and deposited in ballot box No. 1. After the delivery of ballot box No. 1, to the counting judges the same shall be immediately opened by them and the tickets shall be taken out one at a time by one of the counting judges, who shall read distinctly while the ticket remains in his hand the name or names written or printed thereon, also the office that is intended to be filled by such person voted for, and deliver the same to the other counting judge, who shall place the same in another box and keep securely until the counting is finished and then said box with all the ballots cast at said election shall be returned to the county clerk as provided for by law. The same method shall be observed with each ticket, and the counting shall continue thus until all the ballots in the box are counted. And then the counting judges shall securely close ballot box No. 1, and deliver the same to the receiving judges, and receive from the receiving judges ballot box No. 2, and go on in the same manner until the polls are closed and all the ballots are counted. No person or persons shall be admitted in the room or place where such ballots are being counted except the judges and clerks of election.

PARTY REPRESENTATIVE.

Provided, that any political party may select a representative man, who may be admitted as a witness of such counting.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VOTES.

It shall be the duty of one polled of the judges to announce to the voters present the total number of votes at each change of the boxes; but the judges, clerks and witnesses shall make oath that they will make no statement nor give any information of any kind as to the number of votes polled for any office or person nor the name of any person voted for, nor any other fact touching in any way to show the state of the polls at any time previous to the closing of the polls of said election on the day of the same.

(ACT. 1696, R. S.) COUNTING THE VOTES.

Immediately after closing the polls, the officers of election shall proceed to count the votes in the presence of two qualified voters, of their county of good repute, and of different political parties, if such can be conveniently obtained, and shall continue such count without intermission until all the ballots voted at such election are counted.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

CONTAINS NEITHER AMMONIA, ALUM OR ANY OTHER INJURIOUS DRUG.

The Wisconsin Dairy and Food Commissioner says

In his Annual report for 1890, on page 82:

"The NATIONAL DISPENSATORY says of Carbonate of Ammonia: 'It is irritant, and if long continued, even in doses which the stomach will tolerate, it impairs nutrition; in doses of five to ten grains it increases the fullness and force of the pulse and causes a sense of lightness in the head. It is one of our most powerful medicines and certainly should not be used in the preparation of foods.'"

On page 85 the report further states:

"The result of experiments would indicate that the residues in bread made from Alum Baking Powder, have a decided effect even on a strong and healthy stomach. The weight of testimony is decidedly against the use of ALUM.

The following powders contain either ammonia or alum, or both: Royal, Calumet, Forest City, Pearl, Unrivalled, Echo, Crown, Chicago Yeast, Bon Bon, Star, New Era, Snow Ball, Zipp's Grape Crystal.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs M. E. Brown returned to her Kentucky home last week.

We learn that W. T. Winn will speak here some time in the near future.

A little child of our foreman, Mr. G. C. Thomas, is quite low with fever.

Herman Gordon Quarles, the ticket forger was placed under bond of $3,500 at Sherman last Monday.

J. L. Mayes of Rheas Mill has purchased a farm from C. M. Kincaid near Merritt, Hunt county.

Mrs. T. C. Burch of Rockwall, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. C. Thomas.

Marshal Burks closed the saloons last Sunday. Many of the boys complained of being "dry."

A Hoggite delivered himself of some strong adjectives against the "third" party last Tuesday, but when he came to son-of-a &c, he was promptly called to times by a bystander.

Persons troubled with chronic diarrhea should try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœ Remedy. Many cases have been cured by it after all else had failed and skilled physicians were powerless. For sale by R. E. Bristol.

J. T. and W. H. Chambers, returned from a pleasant trip in North Carolina last Saturday. They report plenty of fruits and vegetables in the old tar heel state.

W. T. Hale returned from Georgia last Saturday, and found that his people's party friends had nominated him for Justice of the Peace in his absence. We expected to see our bachelor friend return a married man but were disappointed.

C. B. Hollander, son of J. F. Hollander, was brought to this city as a corpse last Tuesday evening from Dodd City in Fannin county. The young man had been absent for two years. The remains were buried in Pecan Grove Cemetery on Monday last. The DEMOCRAT extends sympathy to mourning relatives.

Abe Enloe, candidate for justice of the peace in this precinct hands us his announcement and has some cards printed. Mr. Enloe is an able wholesouled gehtleman, who, if elected will make an impartial justice. He is a farmer of sober and industrious habits.

Mr. Clarence Shuman of this city and Miss Pearl Addington of Copeville, were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony last Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's parents The DEMOCRAT extends greetings to the happy pair and wishes for them a blissful future.

Our young friend, Tom W. Perkins of the Wylie Rustler, was married to Miss Sallie Faulkner last Thursday evening. Miss Faulkner is the daughter of Rev. J. B. Faulkner who is well and favorably known throughout the country. The DEMOCRAT extends greetings to the happy pair and wishes for them a long life of prosperity.

A Good Thing To Keep at Hand.

From the Troy (Kansas) Chief.

Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus; and now when we feel any of the symtoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness of the stomach, diarrhœa, etc., we become scary. We have found Chamberland's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy the very thing to straighten one out in such cases, and always keeps it about. We are not we not writing for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what is a good thing to keep handy in the house. For sale by R. E. Bristol.

We print tha most important clauses of the Texas election law in this issue. Read it and file it away for future reference.

Judge P. B. Muse has moved to Sherman, where he will make his future home and resume an active practice of law. Judge muse leaves Collin county with the good will of all citizens, regardless of political affiliations. The DEMOCRAT wishes him a long and successful future.

J. T. Branch, people's party candidate for representative, went to Weston last Monday night to meet the Hon. J. R. Gough in joint debate. We learn that Judge Abernathy, Hons. Gough and Greer were all present and spoke against Mr. Branch. Go to 'em Branch. Three to one is a good record for you.

Judge M. W. Johnson is in the city shaking hands with his many friends. The Judge is looking well. He is now engaged in the Hogg killing business. He says a few years ago Hogg made a speech at Andrews' park near McKinney in which he denounced the Collin county democracy because it had inaugurated a platform contrary to the national platform. The Judge thinks that his Hoggship is rather inconsistent at this stage of the game.

ADMITTED THE FACTS.

Newspaper editors have to be very careful in opening their columns for statements. But aware that the Dr. Miles Medical Co., are responsible, we make room for the following testimonial from R. McDougall, Auburn, Ind., who for two years noticed a stoppage or skipping of the pulse, his left side got so tender he could not lie on it, his heart fluttered, he was alarmed, went to different doctors, found no relief, but one bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure cured him. The elegant book, "new and startling facts," free at Smith Bros. drug store. It tells all about Heart and Nervous Diseases and many wonderful cures. 3

JUDGE GEORGE CLARK spoke to a good crowd at the court house yesterday. At night Judge Watts of Dallas, Commissioner Walsh of the land office and Judge M. W. Johnson of Paris, spoke in behalf of Clark. The speeches were spicy and created much enthusiasm among Clark's friends. A notable feature of the speeches were the friendly terms used in speaking of candidate Nugent. Each one pronounced him an able and pure gentleman—one whom Texas should be proud of. Judge Watts said he had been intimately acquainted with Nugent for years and never knew a better district judge or a more pure and better citizen of Texas. These testimonials made us believe that all present should vote for Nugent.

$100 Reward 100.

The readers of the DEMOCRAT will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

THE Geo. Clark club of McKinney is having a tussel with one of our cotemporaries.

A large portion of our citizens missed a good speech by not attending the Coleman speaking.

Prejudice is an unfortunate barrier to progress and reform.

J. B. Wells writes to us from Kemp, I. T. where he is attending the bedside of a sick son. He says that he is well pleased with our county ticket. He reports crops good, with plenty of rain. He sends encouraging words to Kirkpatrick and Branch and declared the DEMOCRAT to be a true first class paper and hopes the Prairie Grove boys will not stop pulling for success.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand ont in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn admihisters it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by R. E. Bristol.

A Hogg man criticised us on the streets recently for favoring Nugent.

He claimed that if the peoples party fellows did not aid Hogg, Clark would play the d-l. We give him to understand that Hogg had already played the d-l and the only showing was for such fellows as him was to desert his Hoggship and vote for a man of brains—Nugent!

R. W. COLEMAN,

Champions the People's Cause in Old Collin and Comes Out Victorious.

Doggett and Mangum Led as Lambs to the Slaughter.

COLLIN IS ALL RIGHT.

On Monday the 12th inst, R. W. Coleman, of San Antonio and editor of the San Antonio Truth arrived in the city. He had been expected on that date but the committee did not hear from him although he said that he wrote two letters addressed to the editor of the Democrat which failed to come to hand. Bills were hurriedly scattered announcing speaking as follows.

McKinney, Sept. 12th, at night.
Weston, Sept. 14.h, at night.
Celina, Sept. 13th, at night.
Rheas Mill, Sept. 14th, at night.
Lebanon, Sept. 16th, at night.
McKinney, Sept. 17th, 1 p. m.

Although the news was not spread thoroughly, quite a large crowd greeted the speaker at the court house on Monday night. By some mistake the Hon. J. L. Doggett requested a division of time which was courteously granted by Mr. Coleman.

While the writer was not present, we learn that Mr. Coleman had an easy victory. In fact democrats who heard the discussion claim that Coleman is a regular cyclone in point of information and oratory.

With the exception of Weston (not being well advertised) Mr Coleman was greeted with large audiences.

Judge Abernathy, G. R. Smith, J. R. Gough and collector McKinney attended the Rheas Mill appointment but owing to unfavorable condition of affairs soon returned to McKinney.

On Saturday morning Mr. Coleman arrived in McKinney from Lebanon, where he learned that it had been reported by the big officials of Collin that he (Coleman) refused to divide time because he was afraid.

Although Mr. Coleman had announced that he would make a three hour speech on Saturday evening before leaving on the south bound train, he sacrificed his time by offering a reasonable portion of it to the gentleman who wished to "tackle" him. Judge Abernaty had left to look after a "bridge." Mr. G. R. Smith was found who said that he would find a man. Cap. T. F. Mangum was the gentleman to champion the cause of democracy. Mr. Coleman opened the ball with an hour and fifteen minutes speech. His speech was said by most all present to be the grandest presentation of the season, regarding plain facts eloquently expressed. Capt. Mangum made a noble effort within one hour and forty-five minutes. The thirty minute rejoinder of Mr. Coleman was simply the most terrific, swiftest and eloquent reply we have ever had the pleasure of listening to.

The big audience rose to its feet and cheered until it seemed that the massive walls of the court house would tremble. After the speaking the streets were blockaded with groups of men who excitedly related the points made by Mr. Coleman. Democrats were numerous who declared that the eloquent Bailey was not a circumstance compared to Mr. Coleman.

It was a victory that opened the eyes of our democratic friends to the fact that the peoples party have some of the best leaders in the country and is likely to play an important part in, even, the approaching election.

R. W. Coleman was born in Georgia and raised in Mississippi. He is about 28 years of age, medium size, fine physique black hair and eyes.

He is highly educated with unusually gentlemanly bearing. His voice is clear, eloquent and pursuasive.

He expressed himself as delighted with Collin and her people and will likely visit us again before the campaign is over.

Long may he live and prosper to battle for the right.

People's Party Convention.

All who are in sympathy with the peaples party of commissioner's precinct no. 1, Collin county are requested to meet at their respective voting boxes on Saturday, Sept. 24 and select one delegate for every fifty votes cast at said boxes two years ago, to meet in McKinney on Saturday, at 1 o'clock p. m., Oct. 1 1892 to nominate a candidate for commissioner of Precinct No. 1.

R. D. ALLISON,
Chairman, Precinct No. 1.

There is Great Excitement

Among Reumatic sufferers over the new remedy that is being put up in New York City. It is claimed there has never been a case where it has failed to cure. It is called Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy for Rheumatism and is sold for $5 a bottle. The remedy is certainly making for itself a world wide reputation, as the country is full of rheumatism. The manufacturers sell it on an absolute guarantee, and offer to refund the money in any case where it does not work a perfect cure. Sent by express prepaid on receipt of price. THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES PARTAKES OF THE NATURE OF A LIMITED MONARCHY.

Essential Evils of Our Republic.

The Reform Movement a War on Monarchical Systems and not on the Present Office-holders.

WAR OR NO WAR, WHICH WILL IT BE?

BY PROF. A. P. A. STRAIO,

But a reform movement has taken origin and mustering forces towards a gradual suppression of this monarchical rule, headed by a class of men, not distinguished for their riches nor for living in costly mansions, but by common wealth possessing men living in mere cottages; and men who have the philanthropy, forethought, and fortitude to express and act their honest convictions.

The same as in past history of the world there came in the political field a new party movement, when existing parties were neutral on vital issues, and worried along (although generally under different names), and eventually accomplished their office, so starts this reform movement under the name of people's party, during the present existence of the republican and democratic parties who are neutral on the vital issues of the times. For instance, the republicans in 1841 under the name liberty party (nicknamed abolitionists) came in the field during the existence of the whig and democratic parties, who were neutral on the vital issues of the time (slavery); and worried along and survived in whole or part under the names, Liberty League, Freesoil, and Free Democracy, when in 1861 under Abraham Lincoln as president, it accomplished its office.

Such an uprising is there now for the suppression of this supervision of public matter under private classes and an unnecessary taxation of the public trade for their individual profits at the expense of the masses and for an economical administration by the government, as before the late civil war there was an uprising for the suppression of the evils associated with negro slavery. How will the people take it? Will the people of the United States resort to reason and justice and effect these changes through good will and compromise or will they not? Before the civil war, if the minority who had property invested in slaves would have been willing to have taken reasonable prices for their slaves and emancipation of slaves gradually accomplished, the attempt of secession would have been avoided, and there would have been no war. Or would those in the south who had no property invested in slaves not have decided in with the slave-owners in taking up arms for secession and continuance of slavery, and taken a stand for gradual emancipation and for compromise and justice, the force of the slave-owners would have been too trivial and no war would there have been. In the present uprising similar questions again arise—will the minority who have supervision of this public matter for their individual profits at the expense of the masses be willing to have it gradually changed to an economical administration by the government, or will they, when the reform party gets lawmaking and executive officers elected and begin making the changes, endeavor to rise in arms to suppress them? And those people who have no interest in the private supervision of this public matter but at their detriment, what will they do? Will they in sufficient number decide in with the minority in such an emergency and give them power enough to attempt it?

Here is where we are under obligations to do either one or the other, either must be for the reform movement which means suppression of the supervision of public matter under private classes and unnecessary taxation of the public trade for their individual profits at the expense of the masses and for an economical administration by the government, or for the millionaire rule seated in the north-east and London which inevitably means a standing army and the people under the yoke the same as now in England, Germany and Russia—a monarchy.

But this decision, whether we are for the reform movement or not, can be made as well before as to wait until we are drove to it; and the sooner, the better it will be for our country, as in this manner the evils can be remedied without bloodshed. To depend on the old democratic and republican parties hereafter to acquiesce in favor of the masses is all nonsense. I have observed matters enough to be convinced that each party's policy is simply what is dictated by little bands of leaders, and that these leaders are controled by the millionaires seated in the north-east and London. For this reason the organization of a new party of new and tried material is indispensable. The old parties are on the standstill; they are for no reform. They are not for the suppression of the evils which are pauperizing one class to make millionaires of another class. So it is as absurd for a person to belong to these old parties with expectation of reform when the organizations are under millionaire rule and for monarchical systems, as it is absurd for a school-teacher to belong to a medical association with expectation of being benefited in his profession when theory and practice of teaching is not represented, or as it is absurd for a blacksmith to belong to an association of broom manufacturers with expectation of being benefitted in his profession when the art of blacksmithing is not represented.

Yes, this millionaire rule seated in the north-east and London is as sure to turn this republic into a monarchy if they can hold a sufficient number to support them, as the millionaire rule in the republic of Rome turned it into a monarchy. During the latter period of the republic of Rome there was a class of millionaires on the one side (call in history Patricians) who owned nearly everything, and a class of working people on the other side (called Plebians) who were at their mercy; and when the leaders of the Plebians began to take and execute measures for justice and the suppression of existing evils, the millionaire ruling class rose in arms and turned that great republic into a monarchy. The success of the monarchical side at that time was due to surrounding tribes of warring savages who together with the renegades from the republic fought against the republic for the millionaires for money. This is the way, my friends, our republican form of government will end if the millionaire rule can get sufficient support. But I am convinced that this is not the way ours will end in case it comes to force of arms; for we have no surrounding tribes of savages or foreigners in sufficient number that the millionaires can procure for their support—foreign nations have enough to do to keep tranquility among themselves in such an occasion. And I believe when it comes to such a crisis as this, that the reform movement will be augmented by tens of thousands who are now supporting the millionaire rule of the north-east and London and who are not dreaming of the formidable condition we are approaching.

Some may not like it for me to write with such openness; but I have a right to express my sentiments, when I find cherishers of monarchical system doing the same thing. Did not a writer in a Chicago paper some time in the past come out with a statement something to the effect that "there existed a secret link between the capitalists of our country and the capitalists of European countries, and that in case of emergency, in order to promote their interests they could hire one half of the people to cut the throats of the other half." Yes; And such are the sentiments of the corrupted power of the world.

Respective to the platform of the People's party as it now exists some features are there which may be objectionable, yet it is of such structure and compass as to leave it open for changes for the better. For instance respective to money matters, a currency safe, sound and flexible is demanded, issued directly to the people by the government without the intervention of banking corporations, either as proposed in the sub-treasury plan, or some better system. So that here, to those who are antagonistic to the sub-treasury plan, it should be no reason for not supporting the platform, as there is an opening for a better system, whether such as in the Argentine Republic, some other plan, or such as would be devised by Congress. I, for my part, think that there is a better system, which will suffice every purpose for which the sub treasury plan is intended; which some time hereafter, I will exhibit in these columns if the editor can give me space.

I may furthermore add that the stand I take in politics is this: I want a government of such form which deals directly with the people through agents elected by them without the interventon of prerogative classes, and which gives equal rights to all, special privileges to none, and the greatest welfare and prosperity to the greatest number—free government in a science. I am philosophical in all my political views, and when I write I do so on philosophical basis regardless of parties, but support the party which acquiesces the nearest with my respective views.

H. L. Bentley's Address.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 16. To the people's party of Texas: Letters are coming in from our friends from every part of Texas asking me to state what effect, if any, the endorsement of Judge Clark by the republicans will have on the people's party. I am also asked if there is any truth in the statement that has gone out viz: That Judge Nugent contemplated withdrawing from the race for governor. In response to these inquiries I have to say as follows:

1. The action of the republicans in indorsing Judge Clark will in my opinion be very helpful to Judge Nugent. It effectually answers the stale old charge against us that we were working in the interest of the republicans. It also drives a last nail in the coffin of the "force bill" cry. And better than anything else, it demonstrates the correctness of the prediction which we have been making for years, that when ever we developed sufficient strength in any state to seriously endanger the safety of either of the old parties, the plutocratic element in both would combinto crush us. In Texas the representatives of the Harrison republican party have now combined with the representatives of the Cleveland democracy to defeat the people in their effort to elect Judge Nugent, Nominally they unite to defeat Hogg, but in truth they are after the scalp of the people's party. Our people thoroughly understand the game and there is not the slightest danger of any break in our ranks. Our reports show that on Sept. 1, we had out of less than one-third of the entire vote of the state, 53,151 declared for Nugent, to 43,701 for Hogg, 20,772 for Clark and 3837 for Houston. This means 160,000 votes in the entire state for Nugent, which will elect him. Judge Clark cannot get 50 per cent. of the republican vote of the state. The republicans know he is a democrat of democrats and the especial representative of Cleveland in Texas. They may under the influence of such a manufactured sentiment as was witnessed in Fort Worth hurrah for Clark, but when they get to the ballot box they will hesitate to vote for him, and then true to their instincts as republicans will refuse to indorse Cleveland by voting for his lieutenant in Texas. I do not think I over estimate Judge Nugent's popularity with the republicans when I say I think fully 50,000 will vote for him. They know he is a pure man personally, that he is a man of great ability and a very conservative man. Further, they recognize him as representing an organized protest against machine democracy, while Judge Clark as the representative of Cleveland represents the machine.

2. In regard to Judge Nugent and his race for governor I will state that nothing could be more absurd than the the statement that he will give up the fight when victory for him and the cause he represents is practically in his grasp. He believes that he is going to be elected and will only redouble his efforts now that both the democrats and republicans are divided.

NUGENT AND HOGG POETRY.

ANNA, Tex., Sept. 12, '92.
Editor Democrat.

Dear Sir:—As my papa is a reader of the DEMOCRAT and I am a reformed party girl fourteen years of age, I thought I would give your readers some poetry in which we hope to see facts, and as this is my first attempt I hope it won't find the way to the waste basket.

NUGENT FIRST, HOGG LAST AND CLARK NOT AT ALL.

Nugent will eat the melon,
Hogg will eat the rine,
Nugent will go to Austin.
Hogg will be left behind.

Nugent will eat the apple,
Hogg will eat the peeling,
Nugent will go to Austin,
Hogg will go to squealing.

Nugent will eat the cabbage,
Hogg will eat the stem,
Nugent will go to Austin,
Hogg will go to the pen.

Nugent will ride in the carriage,
Hogg on the hub,
Nugent will walk the streets of Austin,
Hogg will bog in the mud.

Nugent will eat the corn,
Hogg will gnaw the cob,
Nugent will go to Austin,
Hogg will loose his job.

Nugent will drink the wine,
Hogg will lick the cup,
Nugent will go to Austin,
Hogg will give it up.

Nugent will eat the chicken,
Hogg will eat the feathers,
Nugent will sit in the capitol,
Hogg will take the weather.

Nugent will eat the beef,
Hogg will eat the bone,
Nugent will be elected,
Hogg will go back home.

Nugent will eat the oysters,
Hogg will eat the shell,
Nugent will go to Austin,
Hogg will go to, (you know where.)

The great brainy Nugent is our Moses to lead the people of Texas out of bondage while Hogg is the great Pharoah to end in the Red Sea of politics.

NETTIE S.

A Woman Asserts Her Right.

Editor Democrat:

Allen, Texas.

If you will allow me space in one corner of your paper I will try and tell what I think of the politics of today.

Sister, who ever heard of the like, a woman thinking about such things? Why, that is perfectly rediculous! so the democrats say, but I cant think that way, and I think I have a few on my side. I think that any one that has to abide by the laws of the country, ought to have a perfect right to help make them, but the democrats of my neighborhood, and I suppose it is the same all over the country, seem to think that the place for a woman is at home rocking the cradle and cooking what little they get to cook, and say nothing about it. "We men don't want any of your help. I guess we have been runnning things for the centuries past and I guess we can still run them." Yes my dear friend but where have you run them to? You have run your wives and daughters to the cotton field, or to a life of shame, and you have run your sons to the penitentiary; and look where you have run those poor Homestead strikers, and those Tenn., miners; where have you run them all? You have run them to utter ruin; you have made desperate men of them, starving their families; all because you failed to send the right men to office to make our laws. Can you not see what you are doing?

I heard one of my democratic friends say that the men at Homestead had no right to expect to set their price on their labor. They ought to have taken what Carnegie offered them and said nothing about it. Now isn't that ridiculous for a farmer, with patches on his knees to stand up and say such as that. Now if he does not get hnt 2 1-2 cents for his cotton he ought not to say one word bcause he has no right to set the price on his cotton, nor he ought not to want any more than they are willing to give him. Some of them say the reason cotton is so low is because the cholera is in Russia, and others say it is because Sullivan was whipped, but my opinion of the real facts of the business is: There is not enough money in the country to do the business of the country, and the way to get more money is to send the right kind of men to Congress and elect Gen. J. B. Weaver as our president and then we will have more money, and the government will be run in our interest and consequently we will have better times.

Ladies, listen! We have no right to vote, but we have a right to talk, thank God, and as we have tongues to talk with let us use them to the best of our ability. Young ladies when your sweet-heart comes next Sunday, ask him to vote for the peoples party, and if he says he cant, tell him he c-a-n'-t tie his mule at your gate again until he gets his eyes open, and then it won't take him long to make up his mind to vote for Mollie and the baby. Don't you know.

If by chance a democrat or a republican should read this and make up his mind to join us, we will gladly receive them with open arms. Come with 'us.' We invite everyone to come and help us on to victory and the glory shall be ours.

MRS. M. E. FORBES.

Something for Merchants to Think About.

In many of our towns there are those who desire their clothing MADE TO ORDER, While at the same time there are no custom tailors in their vicinity upon whom they can rely for proper styles, prices, etc.

To meet such a demand, this branch of our business has been expressly established, and has been for many years in successful operation. The very general satisfaction with which our work has been received, enables us to guarantee that, by adopting our method, you will be able to build up a good custom trade in your town and vicinity, which, after a fair trial, will be both satisfactory to your customers and profitable to yourself.

Our garments fit and are comfortable to the wearers. We are not at all in sympathy with the too prevailing idea that ANYTHING WILL DO for what is termed COUNTRY ORDERS. Our line of samples represents the best makes of foreign and domestic manufacturers, and, together with trimmings, workmanship, etc., our work can be relied upon as being superior to that of most of our competitors.

We keep no ready-made clothing whatever, neither do we employ cheap STOCK CUTTERS, but on the contrary, all garments are cut and made expressly to your orders, by the best custom cutters attainable, and under our personal supervision.

We desire to place our line of samples with some good house in every town where such a field exists, and for this purpose invite correspondence from all responsible houses desiring a line of samples.
